Well, it's all over now, and the colored cat give to that "clean and fresh" scent of our attentive postmaster, the credit.

Some of our people have taken a new departure in hotel etiquette, that of bidding the dining-room girls "good-bye" when they leave.

Prarie fires have been quite numerous of late along the Santa Fe track and have burned over quite an area doing considerable damage.

To whatever the cause was attributed, there was a large number of both interested and uninterested people out at the school election yesterday.

B. Johnson has added several new carriages and horses to his livery stable and now has one of the best equipped barns in this part of the county.

The Sunday school at the Methodist have procured new singing books, and a new improvement in the musical part of the service can now be looked for.

When people become so small and insignificant they have to walk blocks out of their way to receive the slightest notice—well, we're on to you "big game" than an African foot.

Yesterday morning the east bound passenger train had on board a little boy, about five years old, ticketed for New York City. He started at Dodge City and will make the trip alone.

A surprise party was given by a number of young folks at Mrs. Mable Shaw Thursday evening of last week, the occasion being her fourteenth birthday. The time was pleasantly spent in playing games and the happy event will long be remembered.

The Peak Sisters will give an entertainment, Friday evening, August 8th, at the M. E. church, at 8 o'clock. Let every one come and hear the Sisters for they will entertain you with one of their original programs. Admission 15 cents. The ladies of the church will serve tea and cake after the entertainment.

The many friends of Tibble and Walter Robb gave them a genuine surprise on Saturday evening. While they were out riding with their mother, the young folks assembled at the home and were in waiting for their return, which had been expected. Numerous games and refreshments were indulged in and the happy hours soon sped away.

The normal is progressing finely, the total enrollment is sixty-five. Prof. Webb is the right man in the right place, and the interest manifested in the work speaks volumes. The efficiency of the schools throughout the county for the coming year, with well trained teachers in charge, will be turned out of this institution, is very promising.

The boys who went to Larned to play ball say that the ball diamond in that city—with a back-stop made of post holes, a corn field growing on third base, the home plate made of an old tombstone stood on end, and several other unique features—in one of the most poetic spots on earth. When you want to see a ball ground visit Kinsley and drive out to "Gees" park.

Our "fortunate widow," Colonel Lewis, had his usual luck at the Congressional convention. The convention said "don't go Colonel." But he will not heed this oft repeated hint, he is the "fortunate widow" of Edwards county politics, and it is quite likely the Colonel will now ask a nomination as representative of the county. Why not? Let us hear from this.

We wonder if the farmer voters of the "Big Seventh" will be guided into supporting the candidate nominated at the Dodge City convention, simply because the man placing him before the convention stated that he was either a farmer or was a "farmer's boy." Farmer candidates were very numerous, about seven out of the twelve being from the "rural" districts.

Tuesday evening was one of those delightful ones, which are very numerous in these parts, and a large happy crowd assembled at the residence of Mrs. A. Adams to enjoy themselves in a pleasant social given by the Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor. A brief but interesting program was carried out, ice cream and cake were served from which they netted a neat sum for their noble cause. This society is quite active and is doing good work, their regular meetings are interesting and entertaining, as well as their socials.

The decorated Quaker oats train bound for the Golden Gate from the enterprising Cereal Milling Company, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, passed through on time Monday and was viewed by a large number of our citizens. The train comprised fourteen loaded cars, carrying 120 thousand two pound packages of this celebrated oats, and was in charge of Mr. Schreves and F. B. Wood, two pleasant gentlemen who said they were meeting large crowds at every stop and taking big orders from the merchants. Edwards & Noble were added to their list at this place.

Unusual interest was manifested in the welfare of our schools yesterday at the school election and a heavy vote was polled. Two candidates were sprung on the meeting: Mrs. Jennie Carter and F. W. Edmonds. Mrs. Carter is one of our good, substantial women, and Mr. Edmonds is one of the shrewd politicians of the republican ranks, both candidates being well qualified to fill the position named to. Mr. Edmonds was elected by a majority of 120, out of a total vote of 292. The school board is now comprised of Dr. Pearson, president; F. Spiegle, clerk and F. W. Edmonds, treasurer. The patrons of the schools can rest assured that the board will procure the best corps of teachers for the coming year obtainable in the city.

Two years ago after a hard fight our county attorney obtained judgment against Kiowa county in the supreme court to compel them to pay their part of the bonded indebtedness of the territory ceded to Kiowa county when that county was organized. It has borne good fruit and will bring to this county about $27,000. The Kiowa county officials seemed reluctant to do their duty and the treasurer was holding back a large amount of money, which he was advised by attorneys he could do. The commissioners recently forced the matter in the hands of the county attorney to prosecute, and he at once applied to the supreme court for a writ of mandamus against the Kiowa treasurer to compel him to surrender the money. The court granted the order. The Kiowa county clerk had dallied with the levy and failed to perform his duty. Our county attorney obtained a process against him from the supreme court compelling him to Topeka to answer for a contempt of court. It is needless to state that the delinquent official came promptly to time and this county will have no further trouble. Some of our people will remember about the deep laid plot to beat Edwards county out of this money, which, if successful would have enriched several prominent attorneys both in Edwards and Kiowa counties. The tax payers can congratulate themselves that in this emergency they had an officer with sufficient ability and integrity to save them so large a sum, when self-interest perhaps would have caused others in the same situation to have allowed things to take a different course.

That—of—Hall.

The young aspirants of this city, for honor on the diamond went to Larned Saturday to wrestle with the boys of that city. They played for three hours and a half, the end of that time the score stood 13 to 35 in favor of Larned. We understand the features of the game were Barker's wild pitching and their colored, mossed, batting for Kinsley Larned's catlike passed balls and their efficiency to run around the bags.

School Election.

Mr. EDWARDS.

The annual school election, which came off on the first, was by all odds the most exciting contest ever held in Kinsley. The causes leading up to it may be briefly stated as follows: It is a fact that all intelligent citizens that our schools are not up to the standard that the amount of money expended would warrant, and naturally the board should be held accountable. This state of affairs has extended back for a number of years. Last year Mrs. Carter, an old resident, and highly educated lady, a member of the Congregational church, and also a W. C. T. U., was solicited to allow her name to be used for the office of school director. After looking the field over carefully, and heeding the advice of friends, it was deemed best to drop the matter for the time. This year she was again importuned to allow her name to be used for the office of treasurer, which she consented to do.

In the mean time a certain element known as the "court house ring," had decided that F. W. Edmonds was not only the proper person, but the only person, capable of filling the office acceptably. The pros and cons, as to the merits and demerits of the two candidates, wrought in the community unwonted excitement; homes, churches and societies divided themselves on the momentous question. Mrs. Carter, a refined christian lady, and a member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, on the one hand, and Mr. Edmonds, who has the reputation of holding Bacchanalian festivities at his residence on the other.

The moral, spiritual christian and temperance ingredients of this community have been stirred to the very bottom and the drama came to the surface. The Methodist society, headed by the pastor, voted almost as a unit for Mr. Edmonds. The W. C. T. U. split in twain, about half voting for each of the respective candidates. The Congregational society, of which Mrs. Carter is a member, became divided in itself. All the nondescript element about town and those who are now, and have been in the past, church members were there and voted for Mr. Edmonds. Silks and satins rubbed against the soiled and grimy garments of the laborer, in frantic haste to deposit the magic symbol of suffrage. There was a noticeable inclination to depreciate and sneer at the remarks incident at the nomination of the lady, while the element in the rear were profuse in applause when the name of the gentleman was presented. The Methodist pastor, seconded Mr. Edmonds' nomination with panegyric remarks. This strange commingling of sects and elements is at once striking and appalling, and by no means of a mushroom growth. For the last two years morality, christianity, temperance and all the finer attributes of the human heart seem to be gradually receding to the back ground, while those propensities which furnish material for eternal warfare are gradually but surely gaining ground. Why? Is the query that arises in every thinking mind.

Is it because the leaders of the churches and of the societies who are supposed to advocate virtue and strive to perpetuate the teachings of Christ, are shutting their eyes willfully and instead of uniting in the suppression of vice, seem inclined rather to pat the cheek of immorality and lust? Preaching Christ and him crucified, but by associations and practices give the lie to their creed and barter their religion for a hypocritical and most despicable creature on God's footstool and their name is legion.

AN OBSERVER.

Republican Congressional Convention.

The Republican Congressional convention for this district convened at Dodge City, Wednesday, July 30, at 10:00 a. m., with a little more than a full delegation, owing to the fact that some four or five counties had contested delegations present.

Nothing was done in the forenoon but to effect a temporary organization, and appointing committees preparatory to the regular work. As we did not have a reporter there until afternoon, we are unable to give a report of the committees and work done. When the convention re-assembled at 2:00 p. m., it was found that none of the committees would be able to report before 4 o'clock, a recess was then taken to that hour, when a permanent organization was effected with Harrison Kelley, of McPherson, as chairman.

The committee on resolutions then banded in their report, which was read, and accepted. We were unable to take a copy of the resolutions for publication, but will promise our readers that if they are published as read in the convention we will endeavor to print them in full. The resolutions adopted were very broad, taking in almost all the leading statesmen of the Republican party and eulogize them for their past conduct. At mention of the names of Blaine and Ingalls, the audience went wild and cheered to the echo. They recommended and asked for a free coinage of silver, and "that the silver bill, recently passed by Congress, is a long step in the right direction."

"There was one clause which was 'conspicuous by its absence,' and that was in regard to the success of prohibition. However they resolved against the 'returning house' as a substitute for this clause.

The farmers' alliance was not forgotten by any means. Stirling resolutions were adopted in favor of the farmer and agriculturist, and against trusts, monopolies, combine, and in fact, against everything the farmer knows to be detrimental to him. They also recommended that the National bank now be done away with as the mission for which it was established has been accomplished and there is no further use for it. After the reading of the resolutions there were a few remarks made on them and then they were adopted as read, by a standing vote and "three cheers and a tiger."

The convention then adjourned for supper.

At 8 o'clock the convention was again called to order, when the committee on credentials handed in their report. After which came the nomination of candidates.

The following names were then presented to the convention:

Col. Lewis, of Edwards county; C. J. Jones, of Finney; Johnson, of Kearney; Bodkin, of Morton; Swenson, of McPherson; Edwards, of Pawnee; W. J. Jones, of Reno; Col. Halliwell, of Sedgewick; Hubbard, of Sumner; Hebel, of...

The nominating speeches were limited to five minutes each, therefore only a little over an hour was consumed in nominating the candidates.

About 9:30 p. m. the first ballot was taken, which gave the Colonel Halliwell, 35 votes, Col. Lewis, 25; and the other candidates ranged from 15 down to 9 votes each. We might remark, incidentally here, that after the second ballot the fight was practically narrowed down to Lewis and Halliwell. After the third ballot Swenson's name was withdrawn and in a short time his delegation were all voting for Lewis. The second ballot gave Halliwell 40 and Lewis 28 votes. After the second ballot Halliwell kept gaining until he had 55 and Lewis until he reached 49 votes. Twenty ballots were taken before adjournment. The twentieth ballot gave Halliwell 54 and Lewis 43.

The convention re-assembled at 8:30 Thursday morning July 31, and after a ballot or two had been taken there was a break made towards Halliwell which caused a general stampede in his direction and he received 103 votes, which was 40 more than was absolutely necessary for a choice, and he was declared the choice of the convention.

The convention after some further business, such as electing committeemen for each county then adjourned.

Married.

GRISER—MANNING: At the residence of the bride's parents in Lincoln township, George A. Griser to Miss Corinna W. Manning, by Probate Judge Hatch.

The wedding was a quiet affair only a limited number of the most intimate friends of the young couple being present.

Miss Manning came to Kansas with her parents from Springfield, Ohio. In 1888, and has made a host of friends, respected by all, loving in disposition, a consistent christian, having been a member of the Baptist church since early childhood. The husband of her choice is a worthy son of Louis Griser, formerly a resident of Highland county, Ohio, but now of this county.

The Griser joins with their many friends in wishing them a prosperous voyage, and the efficiency to pour oil on life's troubled waters.

If man would take as much interest in his work as he does in his sport, there would be no need of abolishing poverty.
